

Job Title: Back Waiter

Location: Epiphany Farms Restaurant & Anju Above

Job Description: We are more than just a business; we are committed to creating innovative food systems based on sustainability, community involvement, exceptional service, and impeccable quality. In our efforts to create this change, we expect our employees to uphold the highest standards, both professionally and personally. Though we are dedicated to educating our staff, we feel there are certain qualities that cannot be taught. These include such attributes as a strong drive for excellence, a constant push and sense of urgency, eagerness to learn, quickness to assist in any task, and a commitment for improvement. In addition to these characteristics, potential employees must perform certain job-specific duties including:

- Flawlessly and gracefully assist service staff in running food, water service, bussing tables, and marking courses
- Learn every detail of the Company's ever changing seasonal menu
- Follow all procedures and policies set forth by the company, division, and department
- Adhere to all health and safety regulations
- Monitor and maintain cleanliness, sanitation, and organization of assigned work areas
- Complete duties such as setting up work stations with required supplies and equipment, inspecting their cleanliness and working condition, and establishing priority items for the day

Requirements:

- Previous restaurant experience preferred
- Excellent customer service skills
- Knowledge of fine food and wine and the confidence to serve such items properly
- Familiarity with local attractions and activities to respond to guest inquiries and needs
- Professional appearance and demeanor
- Work varied shifts, including weekends and holidays
